Dedication.

This little volume is affectionately dedicated by the Clan Mackay Society to the Memory of the gallant men and women of our Clan who gave their lives in the European War of 1914-1918. They generously and courageously answered the call to the defence of the British Commonwealth of Nations and of our Allies. Inspired by unselfish ideals, they, along with their comrades, who are still with us, endured untold hardships and privations by sea and land. They served, suffered and died in the firm belief that Peace and Happiness would by their bitter agony be secured to mankind. Their constancy and self sacrifice will ever inspire their Clansmen to render new services to humanity. Their names, here recorded, will be remembered in love and honour.

PERICLE'S FUNERAL ORATION OVER THE DEAD SOLDIERS OF ATHENS.

"So they gave their bodies to the commonwealth and received praise that will never die and the grandest of all sepulchres, not that in which their mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men, where their glory remains a living inspiration to speech or action. For the whole earth is their sepulchre, and their story lives on in distant lands, woven into the stuff of other men's lives."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN AT THE DEDICATION OF THE NATIONAL CEMETERY AT GETTYSBERG, 19th November, 1863.

"It is for us, the living, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from these honoured dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

Those departed clansmen whom this Memorial volume commemorates were numbered among those who left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives in the hope that others might live in freedom.

Let those who come after them see to it that their names be not forgotten.
