1.	Miss Agnes Palmer 15 Kildonnan Terrace Ibrox (Just after Copland Road) Ground floor flat	T.H.	Saw both Miss Palmer and her sister and much better in health than at last visitation and very grateful for all that Coopers have done for them.
2.	Miss Isabella Wilson 33 Albert Avenue Crosshill (1 up)	T.H.	Not too robust but carries on as well as she can, has one boarder who is like a daughter to her. Very grateful.
3.	Mrs Jane Galbraith 14 Kingussie Drive Kings Park Glasgow	T.H.	87 yearse of age, is keeping very well. Resides with her youngest son who was 18 months old when she was put on pension roll. Her grand daughter teaches music at this address.
4.	Miss Marion Pinkerton c/o Mrs Thomson 148 Bellahouston Drive Mosspark	T.H.	Stays with her sister is well and cheery and very grateful. She regrets that she now has not now to call for pension.
5.	Mrs Catherine Mairs 16 Balmoral Crescent Queens Park (Last year in N E District)		Is housekeeper to a doctor but finds it rather trying as her rooms are in a small flat but is trying to carry on over the winter.
6.	Henry McFarlane 10 Mossside Road Shawlands (Removed to Prestwick)		House closed.
7.	Mrs Jane Davis 164 Langside Road Crosshill (Top flat)	T.H	A dear cheerful old lady. Bright and cheery and very grateful. Regrets has not to call for pension.
8.	Thomas Spence 40 Castlemilk Crescent Kings Park		Very distressing case. Suffers from Diabetes and has no means except what he gets from the Coopers and from friends. His two sons one earning 18/- per week and the other 28/- . We think strong representation should be made to the Trades House to put him on their pension list. Age 56, but looks 70.

1.	Miss Isabella Wilson 33 Albert Avenue Crosshill (1 up)	T.H.	Living all by herself. Not now able to attend boarders. Finds her rent (£35 per annum) makes a hole in her income and feels she would like a smaller house if could get one at
	(1 up)	1.11.	a proportional rent. In good spirits.
2.	Mrs Jane Galbraith 14 Kingussie Drive Kings Park		House clean and tidy. Health good considering her great age. (almost 90 years)
	Glasgow Died 21/21935	T.H.
3.	Miss Marion Pinkerton c/o Mrs Thomson 148 Bellahouston Drive		No change in her position and feels well. House satisfactory candidate.
4.	Mosspark Mrs Jane Davis 167 Langside Road Crosshill (Top flat)	т.н. т.н	Health very good. A very pleasant woman to meet. One son in temporary situation (traveller) but making little money. Another son in Canada but only on part time work.
5.	Thomas Spence 421 Kingsbridge Drive Rutherglen	T.H	This man is not in good health (diabetes). House not too tidy but wife in mental home. Has to look after house himself and cook for his two sons.
6.	Mrs Elizabeth Robertson 48 Allness Cressent Mosspark	T.H	Looking in excellent health. House nice and clean and appears very contented. Thankful for what the Coopers are doing for her.
7.	Mrs Anne Scott 27 Paterson Street (1 up right) (Moved to South Eastern District)
8.	Mrs Perrit 11 Kildonnan Terrace Ibrox		Health rather poor. Very depressed over her troubles (diabetes) and is also suffering from blood pressure. Last of the family.
9.	Mrs Celilia Brown c/o Adam Brown 170 Stonelaw Road Rutherglen		Called but house shut. Left note of my calling.

1.	Mrs Perrit		Health fairly good. No change in 11 Kildonnan Terrace Ibrox		circumstances. Obviously difficult to make ends meet. We recommend application for Trades House.
2.	Miss Marion Pinkerton		No change. Health poor but improving but
	c/o Mr Thomson 148 Bellahouston Drive		very bright and contented. Very comfortably
	Mosspark	T.H.	provided for. No complaint.
3.	Mrs Elizabeth Robertson		No change. Health not very good. Very
	48 Allness Cressent		bright and happy.
	Mosspark	T.H
4.	David McAlpine c/o McCall		Health good. Wife died recently. Very
	168 Kenmure Street	T.H	comfortably provided for and contented.
5	Mrs Margaret H. Rule		Health fair. No change. Still trying to get
0.	51 Kingsdyke Avenue		lodger which would make quite a difference.
	Rutherglen	T.H
6.	David L. Adams		A very happy old couple. Health very fair in
	9 Mitchell Drive		view of age. No complaints but must find it Rutherglen		difficult to live on £76. Mr Adams was in the grain trade for a number of years, but he had a sequence of serious losses a few years ago and had to go into liquidation. The son now carries on the business by arrangement with others. The house he lives in cost £750, but was sold at the liquidation and by arrangement with certain interested parties, his daughter was allowed to buy it back for \pounds 400. Mr Adams pays interest on the \pounds 400, otherwise he lives rent free. One girl at home looks after house other daughter's employment in son's office.
