NOTES ON BURGESS ROLL, 1701-1760.

The dates quoted in the Burgess Roll of the admission of a burgess or guild brother by the Town Council are frequently incorrect, and sometimes cannot be traced. A number of those admitted by the Council were never admitted by the Dean of Guild and his court; their names are not on the register, and consequently do not appear in the MS. Index. Occasionally a burgess is admitted by the Guild Court by an act of Council passed some time after! Nor was admission by the Town Council promptly followed by that of the Guild Council—we find, for instance, Wm. Lumsdain was admitted by the Town Council 5 Sept. 1744—and only six years later, 12 Oct. 1750, did the Guild Council admit him. John Russel, writer to the signet, admitted by the Town Council 5 Aug. 1741, became B. and G. only on 15 Sept. 1749, after eight years' delay, while Dr. Robert Hay waited for nearly ten years, from 28 May 1740 to 10 Jan. 1750, ere he became a "freeman."

But the apprentices were far more dilatory.

Robert Thomson, skinner, entered p. 18 July 1711, burgess 18 Feb. 1747.

John Somervail, wright, entered p. 3 Mar. 1797, burgess 11 Feb. 1736.

Robert Young, wright, entered p. 25 Oct. 1682, burgess 19 Sept. 1722.

Robert Tod, wright, entered p. 18 July and 22 Aug. 1705, burgess 7 Mar. 1750.

Evidently there was no advantage to be gained by early admission.

The same may be noticed in the case of guild brethren, entering sometimes long after admission as burgesses.

It is quite evident that despite all the care taken in entering apprentices, burgesses and guild brethren, omissions have occurred. We find men admitted burgesses as apprentices who are not entered in the apprentice roll; or others entered by right of a father burgess, whom we seek in vain in the burgess roll.

Occasionally the Council passed a second act admitting some one as B. and G., apparently forgetting that this had been done already.

Admission as a burgess and guild brother without payment of dues—"gratis"—was in many cases purely complimentary, and conferred no rights or privileges, unless particularly specified.

In some cases it was granted "for good service done," such as the admission of Wm. Blair, gratis, "for good service done at the late fire in the head of the West Bow (29 Sept. 1710)

In at least one case the widow of a burgess and guild brother seems to have conferred the right of admission on her second husband. See Thomas Esplaine, 30 Aug. 1710.

Note.—The form of the entry in the Minutes of Town Council differs occasionally so far from that in the Burgess Roll as to make it worth while to note both. Where no "right of admission" is mentioned, the admission is by payment as exigible from an "unfreeman."

The paucity of cutlers within the city may be gauged by the entry of Robert Boog, 26 Apr. 1748, when there was "no quorum of their craft within the city," and the Town Council had to assume the responsibility.

Chairmasters seem to have been admitted invariably on payment of the dues as unfreemen. They served no apprenticeship, and, curiously enough, seem to have had no right by parentage or marriage.

19 Mar. 1701.—Act discharging unfree traders to keep shops, cellars, etc. for selling wares, drink; also prohibiting burgesses to keep more shops or cellars than one, contrary to law; offenders' shops to be shut and themselves amerced at the discretion of Dean of Gild and Council.

11 Apr. 1701.—“The same day the Council taking to their serious consideration the great prejudice the old burgesses and their children and these that have served their ‘prenticeship or have bought their freedom in this citty doe daylie sustaine by gratis burgesses who oft times doe make moyen with one or other of the Council to get a gratis burges ticket upon designe either to get a place or to get their children put in Heriott’s Hospitall or themselves into the Trinity Hospitall or both—which does much prejudice, etc.” No gratis burges ticket shall henceforth entitle to these privileges.

21 May 1701.—All gratis burgesses must compear before the Dean of Gild and his Council and take the oaths before extracting of the burges ticketts.

27 June 1701.—Act of Council in favour of the freemen burgesses.

The following acts were exhibited, and appointed to be intimate yearly by tuck of drum, against abuses committed by unfree persons in the land mercat and elsewhere, viz. :—Act of 8 May 1607 ;
16 July 1647 ;
17 Oct. 1656 ;
14 Feb. 1688,

Which being considered be the Council, they appoynt the Dean of Gild and his Council to admit and receive the petitioner to be burges of this burgh for payment of the dues of ane apprentice in respect he served his apprenticeship to ane hattmaker, and his master neglected to book him.” (The ‘prentice in question was David, s. to John Leurie, cupper in France, who entered as ‘prentice the same day, 15 July.) (15 July 1702.)

In the privately printed “Reminiscences” (p. xxxv) of Charles Cowan of Logan House, ex-M.P., speaking of the paper mills at Valleyfield, Penicuik, he says, “they were occasionally possessed and wrought by the King's printer of the day. There is a tradition in the parish that a King's printer, named Watkins, about the middle of last (i.e. 18th) century met with a very appalling death. He had been a very godless man, and one Sunday he had been walking with a friend towards Pennicuik House during the hours of divine service, when a storm of thunder and lightning suddenly set in; he blasphemously defied the power of the Almighty, and was immediately struck down dead. It created a great sensation in the congregation, who were informed of the death by the officiating minister before the close of the service.”

She accordingly bears the Title of the Founder of the Hospital, and it is provided that two of the name of Erskine shall be for ever governours thereof, named in the first instance by herself—these two being (probably as relatives) the notorious Master James Erskin of Grange, Senator of the College of Justice, who marooned his mad wife in St. Kilda, and Master David Erskine, advocate. Farther that no women, other than widows or daughters of burghesses, shall be allowed to keep shops, and this in special view of the fact that so many servants quit service and open shops, causing dearth of servants and unfair competition.

A number of unfree brewers in Leith entered burgesses of Edinburgh accordingly.

Dispensing with the dues."

22 July 1719.—John Law, Lord and Earl of Tankerville. This is not the Tankerville family of Bennet, at Chillingham, but its namesake in France on the river Seine.

In "Les Ecosais en France" (Francisque-Michel), 1862, Vol. II, p. 423, speaking of this famous John Law, the author states that the Laws of Lauriston are not the direct descendants of the financier. "Cette famille est issue du frère de l'inventeur du système, qui l'avait rejoint en France et fut compris avec lui. La Duchesse de Bourbon fit placer les deux neveux de John Law au service dans les Indes orientales. L'aîné, Jacques François Law, comte de Tancarville, devint chevalier de Saint Louis, etc." He adds a note on "Tancarville":—"Cette terre venait, à ce qu'il paraît, de John Law. Dangeau écrit dans son Journal, à la date du 31 août 1718. 'On dit que le comte d'Evreux a vendu la terre de Tancarville à M. Law, qui lui en donne 650,000 livres et une pension viagère de 6000 francs.'"

In the letterpress of Turner's "Rivers of France" (published by J. M'Cormick, 147 Strand, London, N.D. Letterpress in both French and English), the note on the front view of the Castle states that "a portion of the building is comparatively new having been built by the celebrated projector, Law, who, immediately after he had bought the property for eight hundred thousand francs, was obliged to fly the kingdom." He died in obscurity and poverty in Venice, his grave is in the church of San Moise.

The entry in the Burgess Roll reads:—18 July 1755.—“The which Day the Right Honble. George Drummond, Esq., Lord Provost [of] the City of Edinburgh, James Stuart, Robert Forrester, George Lind and John Learmonth, baillies of the said city, James Grant, Dean of Gild, and the Gild Council, did and hereby do invest with the freedom of this city Philip, Lord Roystoun, in testimony of their grateful sense of the many eminent services done to Great Britain by The Right Honble. Philip, Earl of Hardwick, Lord Chancellor, and his Lordship's particular attention to the improvement of this part of the United Kingdom, conform to an act of the Town Council of this date.”

(The said act is much more concise.)

Among the “eminent services” were the Earl's presiding at the trial of the Jacobite peers after Culloden, in which capacity he must bear large responsibility for the cruelly vengeful verdicts pronounced and executed. It was due to him that the act was passed in 1748, for disarming the Highlands and making the wearing of the kilt a criminal offence. The abolition of “Hereditary Jurisdictions” in 1746 must, however, be put to his credit.

Note.—2 Feb. 1757.—Gilson, Mr. Cornforth, B. and G., gratis, “for the eminent services done by him to this city by improving the taste of the inhabitants in church music.” He was appointed precentor of the new church 13 Mar. 1757, with £5 above the other precentors, teaching them and the church music schools.

ABBREVIATIONS, &amp;c.

Act of C. = Act of Council.	P. = apprentice.
B. = burghess of Edinburgh.	R.N. = Royal Navy.
By, or in, r. of = by, or in, right of.	Reedmaker = maker of "reeds" for weavers.
Creamer = occupant of a cream or kram (booth).	Residenter = inhabitant [of Edinburgh].
D.G. = Dean of Gild.	Running stationers, or "cadies" who were stationed to run errands.
Dr. = daughter.	S. = son.
Fr. = father.	Sen. Coll. Just. = Senator of the College of Justice.
G. = gild brother.	Surg.-apoth. = surgeon-apothecary.
H.E.I.C.S. = Honble. East India Company.	Tronman = chimney sweep. They kept their brushes, &c. in a shed at the east end of the Town Guard, close to the "Salt Tron," or beam and scales, from which the Tron Church takes its name.
Indweller = resident [in Edinburgh].	W. = wife.
In r. of = in or by right of.
Mt. = merchant.
M.T.C. = Minutes of Town Council.
Orris [and livery lace weaver]. A peculiar kind of gold or silver lace; upholsterer's galloon and gimp.

When anyone is admitted "by act of C." and no date given, the date of the act is the same as that of the entry.

When no qualification for burghess-ship is given, the admission was granted on payment of dues, exigible from unfreemen.

The barbers had a curious fashion of being "freeman Burgess Barber" (David Lawrie, F. 9/4/1777). The tailors similarly, and often, "member of the Incorporation of Tailors of Edinburgh."

When two brothers are in a firm, the surname is entered in plural form. Thus, George Miller, mt., is made B. and G. 16 Nov. 1771 as p. to William and Thomas Tods, mts., B. and G.

NAMES.

It is rare in the earlier records to find any one entering as apprentice or burghess burdened with more than the two names, christian and surname, but these begin to appear early in the eighteenth century, e.g. John Hall Young, 29 April 1729.

Towards the end of that century they increase in frequency.

Matthew is always spelled Mathew.

Occasional changes occur between father and son: James Hog Dixon, son of James Dickson, entered prentice to George Hardie, tertius, baker, 9/12/1779.

ADDRESSES.

In most cases none, only trade or occupation.

Note.—It is always "Canongate" or "Cowgate," without the the.

Some very vague:—Alexander Matheson, carter, near Edinburgh.

Robert Ponton, in the Town of Dalmainy, nigh Cramond.

The "Water of Leith." That is the Village of the Water of Leith, where the Town's eleven mills stood on the south side of the water, opposite the Dean Village on the north side.

SPECIAL TRADES.

These mark the first, or very early, appearance of certain names of trades. We find such changes as "dyer" supplanting "litster," "butcher" supplanting "flesher," "tin-plate-worker" for "white-iron smith."

CHRONOLOGICAL NOTES.

See an act of the Town Council, Sept. 1759, upon a motion made by the then dean of gild that there was two persons applying to be Burgesses in right of their wives. That by an act of the Town Council 19 July 1583 it is enacted "that daurs. of Burgesses shall lose the freedom if they are not reputed virgins. That this act had been so applied that daurs. of B. could not communicate the freedom to a second husband, which was the case of the two persons applying. Find & Declare that the daurs. of a B. has right to communicate the freedom of the city to her second husband in the event of her first husband not entering B. in her right."

4 March 1761.—Robert Mitchell, p. to James Young, junior, barber, wigmaker and hairdresser. This seems to be the earliest mention of this designation.

17 June 1761.—"Upon a Recommendation from the Governours of Herriots Hospitall in favour of Robert Gilmore, Ropemaker in Bristo, Appoint the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receive him Burgess of this city gratis to this effect only, that Peter Gilmore his son may have a title to be received into the said Hospitall."

11 Aug. 1762.—The five masters of the High School, Messrs. Alexr. Mathison, John Gilchrist, Robert Farquhar, Alexr. Bartlet and James French, admitted B. and G., gratis, for good services.

"Resolved that for the future none of the masters of the High School shall be admitted Burgesses untill after they are five years in office."

In 1763 an extraordinary number of cases occurred of a man's being admitted burgess on the same day that he had entered as apprentice for several years. This suggests the explanation that they had not been booked at the time of entering as apprentice, and did so, in a formal way, on the expiry of the apprenticeship.

30 March 1763.—The Treasurer moved the Council to present with the freedom of this city Sir William Baird of Saughtonhall, Baronet, and Captain James Hart for the good services done by them to their King and Country during the late war; both these gentlemen having also been particularly friendly to many of our countrymen employed in his Majesty's service in the East Indies. Which being considered by the Magistrates and Council they appoint the Dean of Gild and his Council to admitt and receive Sir William Baird of Saughtonhall, Baronet, as also Captain James Hart, Burgesses and Gildbrethren of this City for good services done to King and Country.

30 Nov. 1763.—"The Lord Provost represented that the military at present in the Castle had been remarkably active in assisting the magistrates in quelling the late mobs, and that it would be proper to give them some gratification for the great fatigue and trouble they had in that matter. Which being considered by the Magistrates and Council they with the extraordinary Deacons authorise and appoint the City Treasurer to cause distribute a week's pay among the private men. Whereanent these presents shall be a warrant. And the Council also resolved to compliment the officers of the said corps with the freedom of the city for the assistance they gave the Magistrates upon that occasion."

15 Feb. 1764.—"It being represented by the Magistrates that it appeared by a precognition taken before them that James Ireland, son to James Ireland, writer in Edinburgh, had been guilty of breaking up the shop in the new Exchange belonging to Robert Thomson, merchant, and thereafter had absconded. Upon which they had advertised a Reward of Ten Guineas to be paid by the City Treasurer to any person who should apprehend the said James Ireland and upon his being convicted. The Council approved of the procedure of the Magistrates in the said matter.

It was at the same time represented that the Magistrates had got information that the said James Ireland had made his escape to Newcastle, whereupon the Lord Provost had wrote to the Lord Mayor of that place desiring that he might take the trouble to cause search to be made there for him, and that the Mayor of Newcastle had caused apprehend him after a pursuit of forty miles in which that gentleman had been at great pains as well as in many other matters relating to the Interest of this City, and therefore it was moved that the freedom of the city should be conferred on him for his good services and that the Lord Provost should acquaint him thereof and at the same time desire of him to pay the officer who apprehended Ireland in such manner as he should judge reasonable, which afterwards would be repaid to him by the City Treasurer."

19 Dec. 1764.—"It being represented by the Dean of Gild that an Index of Honorary Burgesses would be very necessary and convenient and moved that the same should be done and the Dean of Gild clerk authorised for that purpose, Did therefore authorize Mr. Alves to make out the foresaid Index commencing from Michaelmas one thousand seven hundreded and forty two and to be executed betwixt and the first day of March next."

7 Aug. 1765.—"Alexr. Newlands, mt., compearing, is made B. of this city in r. of Alexr. Newlands, mt., B. his father, and he paid his dues, gave his oath, &c. Thereafter it having been represented to the Dean of Guild and his Council that the aforesaid Alexr. Newlands, mt., was only the natural son of Alexr. Newlands, mt., and consequently had no right, the Court Rescinds the above entry and Discharge the Clerk of Court from giving out the Ticket." [There is accordingly no entry on the margin of dues paid.]

13 May 1767.—"Considering that a practice has for some time prevail'd of giving the freedom of the city to many persons indiscriminately which has been attended with great Inconvenience, The Council Do therefore Enact & Declare that no Burges Ticket shall be granted in time coming to any person whomever, but such as are invested with public character or shall have signalized himself in the service of his country or this city."

which will be four hours additional time to this city in their correspondence with London, and which had been before solicited in vain from Postmasters-General.
