PREAMBLE.

At a Meeting of Gentlemen, natives of Irvine, resident in Glasgow, held at the Crow Hotel, George Square, on January, 31st, 1868, a wish was expressed that they should not be behind other Towns in Ayrshire and elsewhere, and it was resolved to form a Society, to be called "The Glasgow Irvine Society" for the following objects:

1. To afford relief to persons who from various causes, are in necessitous circumstances;

2. To promote good fellowship amongst the natives of Irvine in Glasgow.
