TO COMMEMORATE
THE MEMBERS OF THE STAFF OF
THE NATIONAL BANK OF SCOTLAND
LIMITED
WHO SERVED IN THE GREAT WAR
1914-1918

THE Memorial Tablet is erected in the vestibule of the Head Office, and will be a lasting tribute to the memory of the members of the Bank's Staff who laid down their lives for their country's freedom, and whose loss is mourned not only by the relatives but by their colleagues.

The Tablet was unveiled by The Governor of the Bank, HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF MONTROSE, K.T., on 22nd December 1921, in presence of the Deputy Governor and Directors, and a large gathering of relatives and friends of those whose names are recorded on the Tablet, and many members of the present Staff.

The CHAIRMAN of the Board of Directors introduced His Grace, who said :

" I have the honour to unveil this Memorial to the 78 Members of the Staff of The National Bank of Scotland who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardship, faced danger, and then finally passed out of sight of men by the path of duty, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom.

" When the burden of War first bore heavily upon the Country, the response to the call of duty from every profession was nobly made, and without counting the cost and with no idea of self-interest, the flower of our manhood gave up all that they had for their Country's cause. They won the Victory and the Victor's Crown.

" Only those who have seen the devastated regions of France and Belgium can fully realise from what horrors these brave men saved their Country. They fought with grim determination, as Lord Haig said, with their backs to the wall, and their gallant deeds will be recorded for all time in the Annals of the British Army.

"I should like to quote a sentence from an address delivered by General Currie, commanding the Canadian troops, on the eve of one of the great advances in 1917. I think this quotation conveys a word of comfort to those who have been bereaved of their dear ones. General Currie said: 'To those about to fall, I say you will not die, but enter into immortality; your mothers will have been proud to have borne such sons. You will be revered for ever and ever by a grateful Country, and God Almighty will take you into His keeping.'

"Any observations I have been privileged to make to-day must in the natural course of events shortly be forgotten, but this Memorial will remain in perpetuity as a record of the brave and self-sacrificing service given to their Country during the Great War by 78 Members of the Staff of The National Bank of Scotland. We have need of such men in Britain to-day."

The Memorial was thereafter dedicated by the Right Rev. A. WALLACE WILLIAMSON, D.D.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE STAFF WHO
IN THE GREAT WAR OF 1914-1919 FREELY
LAID DOWN THEIR LIVES FOR THEIR COUNTRY THIS MEMORIAL IS DEDICATED
