LEST WE FORGET

John Menzies & Company Limited

---

THE War Memorials to Members of our Staff were unveiled in our Edinburgh House on the evening of Tuesday, 29th November, and in our Glasgow House on the evening of Wednesday, 7th December 1921.

The unveiling ceremonies were performed by Mr. John R. Menzies, after addresses delivered by Colonel C. T. Menzies. None of us who were present can ever forget the occasions of these simple and moving ceremonies paid to the honoured memory of those who fell.

I have prepared this Record of the names of the men of our Company who served in the Great War, particularly as a further remembrance of those of them who died for their King and Country. This list of names records the various branches of our business whence these men rallied in response to the great call.

ROLL OF HONOUR

I ask the acceptance of this book by every individual on our Staff throughout the country and by the relatives of all those who have fallen.

I desire to add to this preface extracts from the memorable and inspiring words addressed to the Nation by some of those who led to Victory.

J. R. M.

This Majesty the King

WITHIN a year an Army more than ten times the strength of that which was ready for action in August 1914 was raised by voluntary enlistment, largely owing to the organising genius and personal influence of Lord Kitchener, and the number of that Army was afterwards far more than doubled.

These new soldiers, drawn from the civil population, have displayed a valour equal to that of their ancestors, who have carried the flag of Britain to victory in so many lands in bygone times. Short as was their training, they have imitated and rivalled the prowess of the small but ever famous force which, in the early weeks of the war, from Mons to the Marne, fought its magnificent retreat against vastly superior numbers.

While we find in these things cause for joy and pride, our hearts go out in sorrowful sympathy to the parents, the wives, and the children who have lost those who were the light and stay of their lives. They gave freely of what was most precious to them. They have borne their griefs with unrepining fortitude, knowing that the sacrifice was made for our dear country and for a righteous cause. May they find consolation in the thought that the sacrifice has not been made in vain. These brave men died for Right and for Humanity. Both have been vindicated.

In all these ways, and through all these years, there has been made manifest the unconquered and unconquerable spirit of our race, nourished on the glorious traditions of many centuries of freedom. This spirit, conscious of its strength, bore the trials and disappointments of these years with a fortitude that was never shaken and a confidence that never failed. It knew its motives to be pure, and it held fast to its faith that Divine Providence would not suffer injustice and oppression to prevail.

FIELD-MARSHAL SIR DOUGLAS HAIG

(now Earl Haig of Bemersyde)

THE long years of patient and heroic struggle by which the strength and spirit of the enemy were gradually broken down cannot be forgotten. The strain of those years was never ceasing, the demands they made upon the best of the Empire's manhood are now known. Yet throughout all those years, and amid the hopes and disappointments they brought with them, the confidence of our troops in final victory never wavered. Their courage and resolution were superior to every test, their cheerfulness never failing, however terrible the conditions in which they lived and fought. By the long road they trod with so much faith and with such devoted and self-sacrificing bravery we have arrived at victory, and to-day they have their reward. We have been accustomed to be proud of the great and noble traditions handed down to us by the soldiers of bygone days. The men who form the Armies of the Empire to-day have created new traditions which are a challenge to the highest records of the past and will be an inspiration to the generations who come after us.

ROLL OF HONOUR

ADMIRAL SIR JOHN JELlicoe

(now Viscount Jellicoe of Scapa)

OF the gallantry shown it is difficult to write with proper restraint.

Whenever and wherever there was opportunity, officers and men displayed courage and self-sacrifice of the highest order.

ROLL OF HONOUR

There were innumerable instances which proved that the personnel of the present Navy has nothing to learn in this respect from its forefathers. The dead died heroic deaths; the wounded behaved with marvellous fortitude. Forty-four years passed in the service had given me unbounded faith in, and admiration for, the British officer and bluejacket, but they surpassed all my expectations, and so long as that spirit endures this country will be fortunate.

O Valiant Hearts, who to your glory came
Through dust of conflict and through battle-flame ;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar ;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save mankind—yourselves you scorned to save.
